ROAD TO....PROGRAMS

Lerner Career Services manages the Road to Wall Street and Road to Madison Avenue and Beyond Programs to help students gain an edge in their internship search process.

The Road to Programs provide training, mentoring and employment opportunities for students interested in careers in Finance, Wall Street, Marketing or Communications in NYC and Philadelphia. The programs are open to all undergraduate majors. Applications typically open during late spring for acceptance into the fall program. For further information, contact Lerner Career Services at lernercareerservices@udel.edu.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

Applicants should have:

• Rising junior status (Fall semester) in any major.
• A minimum GPA of 3.2.
• Availability for a summer internship between junior and senior year.

GRADUATE INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

The Graduate Internship Program is an elite internship program for full-time graduate students. Interns gain experience working in an industry setting – with companies like AAA Mid-Atlantic, M&T Bank, Christiana Care, Siegfried, Sallie Mae, DuPont, Barclays and University of Delaware departments – while earning a stipend and tuition scholarship. Many interns earn job offers through their performance in the program.

Graduate Interns work on projects including: Business information and forecasting, corporate training and learning, financial services support, marketing, media or public relations campaigns, product opportunities assessment, operations and supply chain management and website design and strategy.

Graduate Interns can work during the fall, spring and summer semesters. If selected, students receive a stipend and tuition scholarship. Check out the opportunities in Handshake.
