Economics Minor

Applications for the Minor in Economics are submitted through UDSIS and are reviewed twice a year

- Eighteen (18) credits in approved economics courses with a minimum grade of C- is required
- ECON 101 and ECON 103 plus at least one intermediate theory course (ECON 251, 255, 300 or 301) with a grade of C- or better
- The remaining nine (9) credits may be taken from any economics course at the 300-level or higher subject to below:
  - No economics course in which the student has received a grade lower than C- may be counted toward fulfillment of the 18 credit requirement
  - If a grade lower than C- is received in any other economics course, it does not have to be repeated but can be used as a free elective and another economics course can be taken in its place to meet the minimum 18 credit requirement
  - If a course is repeated, all grades appear on the transcripts and count when calculating the GPA
  - Credits may be earned only once
  - Some subjects covering very similar material are taught in more than one course but at different levels of rigor and detail
  - Credit may be earned for only ONE course among ECON 251, ECON 255, ECON 300 and ECON 301
  - Credit will not be allowed for both courses of any of the following sets of corresponding courses:
    - ECON 332 and ECON 433
    - ECON 343 and ECON 444
    - ECON 360 and ECON 463
    - ECON 381 and ECON 483
    - ECON 390 and ECON 490
    - ECON 415 and ECON 422

- Students must complete ECON 101 and ECON 103, each with a grade of C- or better, prior to submitting an application. Applications for the minor are submitted through UDSIS and are reviewed on a rolling basis. A minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 will be required for consideration.
